

I support RM-10765. As a former Teletype Operator and owner of several Teletype Machines produced during World War Two, it is important that we have the means to maintain these machines and the means to enjoy them. It would be a loss to history and to future generations should they be destroyed because there is no signals to allow them to be used, operated and enjoyed.

Larry Parks
Renton, Wa 98056